Lifestyle Commitment

The Warner University lifestyle commitment is based on the principles of the New Testament as interpreted by the Church, the University Administration, and its Board of Trustees. Each student is called upon to observe these Christian standards and commit themselves to the following:

- To honor God and live in accordance with His word.
- To respect God, others, and self at all times.
- To earnestly pursue academic scholarship.
- Maintain positive health habits by abstaining from the use of alcohol, tobacco, and abusive substances.
- Warner University accepts no form of academic dishonesty.

As a student at Warner University, I understand and accept the Christian lifestyle commitment as set forth above. I commit myself freely and faithfully to uphold the ideals of Warner University and personally agree to abide by the guidelines in the Student Planner. I further understand that violation of this lifestyle code makes me subject to discipline by the University community.

Please check if you agree. (Application will not be accepted without agreement)

Essay (200 word minimum)

Submit the required 1-2 page, double-spaced essay addressing the following: Describe your relationship with Christ and how you see yourself as a good fit for Warner's academic and spiritual environment.
