The Day of Commencement

Reporting and Assembly: Graduates will need to report to the Pontious Learning Resource Center at 8:00 a.m. Bring only the cap and gown - leave personal belongings (phone, purse, cameras, etc.) with your guests. You will be given a name card and asked to find your position in line (alpha order). During the ceremony graduates will hand their card to the announcer as they step on to the stage for their name to be announced. If the name is difficult to pronounce, please write a phonetic spelling on the card or whisper the pronunciation to the announcer prior to the announcement of the name.

Academic Attire: Tassels are to be worn at the right temple. Men are to remove their caps during the opening prayer, but the cap is worn during conferral of the degree and receiving the diploma folder from the President. Please wear the cap and gown with dignity and no distracting items pinned on them. Master degree graduates will wear the robe, cap and hood. Consider wearing comfortable flat shoes. It will be difficult to walk across the courtyard, which is mostly lawn, in heels.

Honor Cords: Undergraduates who qualify for Latin honors status (Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude or Summa Cum Laude) will receive honor cords from the Registrar's Office staff the morning of the ceremony. Honors status will be printed in the program but will not be announced in the ceremony. Due to time limitations, the printed honors status is based on records as of the end of the previous semester or term. Final honors status will be based on all courses and grades and will be printed on the diploma. The honors status qualifications are based on the cumulative GPA as follows: Cum Laude (3.50 - 3.70), Magna Cum Laude (3.70 - 3.89) and Summa Cum Laude (3.90 and above). Latin honors are available for Bachelor of Arts graduates only.

Honor Society Cords: Undergraduates may wear cords or ribbons from university academic honor societies where they hold membership. These should be worn in the same manner as those for the Latin honors noted above.

Processional: Graduates will line up for the commencement procession alphabetically by degree in the Pontious Learning Resource Center. Master degree candidates will be first in line, Bachelor candidates will be next, and Associate candidates will be last. Attendants will lead the procession for the ceremony. The processional will begin promptly at 9:00 a.m.

Photos: All seating at the ceremony allows for a good view of the stage. We asked that guests take photos from their seats only. Professional photos of the ceremony and each graduate will be taken and available for purchase through the contracted photographer, Grad Images. Further details will be available at the ceremony.

Diplomas: The University will mail diplomas approximately 6 - 8 weeks after the semester. All grades and official transcripts must be received and all financial matters cleared before the degree is posted on the transcript and the diploma is mailed.

Recessional: After the ceremony the platform party, faculty and graduates will recess, guests will remain in their seats until the recessional is complete.
