

Warner University

New Student Orientation Schedule

August 24-27

We'll be glad to see you! Here's how to get ready:

Student ID: Be sure to take time to receive your new Warner University Student ID. A kiosk will be set up on Move-In day for your convenience. Meal plan and access to events will require that you have your ID throughout Orientation and into the semester.

Dress Code: The last days of August can be hot and muggy and we want you to dress for comfort and to stay cool.
* Please note: Adherence to the Warner University Dress Code will be expected of all students throughout all Move-In and Orientation activities.

Note: Events marked with an asterisk* are mandatory for the student group(s) indicated.

How do I know my student status?

New Student:	Any traditional student who is enrolled at Warner University for the first time (includes transfer students and freshmen).
Transfer Student:	Any traditional student who is new to Warner but who enrolled with more than 24 credit hours earned.
Residential Student:	Any traditional student who will live in a Warner residence hall or housing.
Freshman / Freshman Transfer:	Any traditional student who is new to Warner and who enrolled with less than 24 credit hours earned.
