

Warner University's 1st Annual "Royal Cup" Winners

Warner University announces the winners of the 1st Annual "Royal Cup." These students competed by submitting a portfolio, two letters of recommendation and resume, as well as completing two group interviews and writing a 500-word essay while on campus. All three winners are outstanding students and actively involved in their school, church and community.

Madyson Keim – Lakeland, FL

Major: Agricultural Studies

George Jenkins High School, Lakeland, FL

Madyson is an exemplary young lady dedicated to pursuing a degree in Agricultural Studies. She has participated in FFA for nine years and has served in leadership offices with FFA at her high school, in the Polk County Federation and as President of Florida's District VIII. One of her teachers said, "Madyson Keim is a young woman of action, tremendous character, determination, empathy, and scholarship who understands she has a special purpose for living." In her essay, Madyson states "attending Warner would further my knowledge about my career field as well as deepen my understanding of the Lord. I always make my faith my first priority in all of my endeavors and I feel that this is how I live out Warner's mission in my life."

Andrew Klein – Winter Haven, FL

Major: Church Ministries

Winter Haven Christian School: Winter Haven, FL

Andrew is a stellar young man striving to fulfill the call that God has placed on his life. "My passion for teaching the Word of God. Not only is this a strong calling on the future of my life, but something I act on." Andrew has been preaching at his church, his school and his youth group since 8th grade.

Andrew has also been involved in the performing arts through Team Impact, a group of teens who travel to Boys and Girls Clubs and rec centers, performing dramatic presentations to teach them about avoiding high risk behaviors such as premarital sex, illegal drug use, alcohol abuse, and tobacco use. Andrew's teacher said, "Everything about Andrew stands out as a unique display of his God-given gift for serving others." Andrew serves on the WHCS Student Council and is project coordinator for the National Honor Society.

Miranda Manduley – Miami, FL

Major: Business Administration

John A Ferguson Senior High: Miami, FL

Miranda is a very well-rounded young lady interested in studying Business Administration with the long-term goal of attending law school and practicing corporate law. She has served as the Head Student Ambassador for her high school as well as a member of FBLA, HIP (Health Information Project), National Honor Society and Student Government Rep. She is a four-year varsity volleyball player and was chosen captain for her senior year. Miranda has signed an official Letter of Intent to play volleyball for the Royals this fall. Miranda is a servant-leader. She enjoys playing the cello, traveling and photography. She says "If it's on the volleyball court or in the classroom, I always strive to offer my service to anyone in need."
