

The background is a vibrant, colorful illustration of the Encanto family's magical house. The house is multi-storied with terracotta roofs and various balconies. A man is seen on a balcony holding a large white animal, while others are visible in different parts of the house. A large, lush pink and purple flowering tree stands to the right. The scene is set against a bright, sunny sky with a rainbow. In the foreground, a young girl in a blue dress stands on a path, and a small brown pig is visible in the bottom right corner. The overall atmosphere is warm and celebratory.
